I hereby nominate Jane Evans

(who has agreed to accept nomination) for election as a member of

Anglican Care Trust Board

Nominator: Moka Ritchie

..... (Signed)

Date ...11th November 2021

Profile of Nominee

I am a parishioner of Christchurch St Michael and All Angels Church and a Synod representative for the Parish. Currently I am on the Anglican Care Trust Board and the City Mission Divisional committee. Professionally, I am a Registered Nurse working in a senior role at Christchurch Hospital.

What draws me to want to be part of these committees is a desire to support those working for and with the Anglican church in Christchurch to ensure those in need in the wider community are supported in a way that improves their lives. I strongly feel that we as a Christian organisation we have a leadership role within our community in supporting those in need.

What I am most proud of is that the work being undertaken provides education to improve the ability for people to develop new skills to become self-sufficient and increase their self-worth.

Another facet of this work is the Advocacy role the church can provide. This is not only being a voice but supporting people to speak out about issues that have a negative impact on their lives.

I believe the Anglican Care Trust Board needs to continue to use its limited resource wisely but, in a way the improves the lives of as many people as possible.
