

HRH Prince of Wales Christchurch Diocese Tour – November 2019

Details of the Royal visit of Prince Charles to Christchurch and Kaikōura are provided below. The programme is correct as of 11 Nov 2019, but is subject to change.

Friday 22 November – Christchurch

Morning

- The Prince and The Duchess visit Tuahiwi Marae

Afternoon

- The Prince and The Duchess visit Cashmere High school
- The Prince attends a reception at Tūranga Library for the Christ Church Cathedral Reinstatement Project
- The Duchess attends a Royal Commonwealth Society young writers' workshop at Tūranga Library
- The Prince inspects Christ Church Cathedral
- The Prince and The Duchess take part in a public walk in Cathedral Square
- The Duchess visits the Salvation Army for a series of Active Elderly events. NB: The Duchess will meet people involved in three programmes in the Christchurch area designed to support elderly people to be healthy and socially engaged and connected with the wider community.
- The Prince gives the state of the environment address at Lincoln University

Saturday 23 November – Christchurch / Kaikōura

Morning

- The Duchess visits the Battered Women's Trust, Christchurch. NB: The Battered Women's Trust is a not for profit organisation dedicated to supporting families to live violence free.
- The Duchess visits the Botanic Gardens, Christchurch

Afternoon

- The Prince visits Takahanga Marae, Kaikōura
- The Prince takes part in a public walk in Kaikōura
- The Prince attends The Future is Bright event at Kaikōura Memorial Hall
- The Prince visits the Hutton's Shearwater site, Kaikōura
- The Prince departs Kaikōura