SYNOD 2020 Nomination Form

I hereby nominate Tracy McLeod
(who has agreed to accept nomination) for election as a member of Craighead Diocesan School Board of Proprietors

Nominator: Indrea Alexander Signed: Indrea Alexander Date: 1/9/20

Seconder: Joshua Taylor Signed: Joshua Taylor Date: 2/9/20

Profile of Nominee

Tracy McLeod was baptised at Hornby Presbyterian Church in Christchurch, attended Sunday school and youth group and was a regular member of the congregation until moving to Timaru in 2000 with her husband Duncan. They joined Life Church in Timaru in 2001 and were committed members there until 2018.

In 2019 the family decided to move to St John's Anglican Church in Timaru as their two daughters at Craighead had begun to make a connection with school chaplain Rev Lucy Flatt.

"We felt that attendance at St John's alongside teaching received at Craighead would provide our girls with a strong foundational Christian base as they moved into their teenage years."

Tracy currently supports Craighead by managing the school's uniform shop, and is a Parents and Friends Representative on the Board of Proprietors.

She said she was "thoroughly impressed by Rev Joshua Taylor and Rev Lucy Flatt and the work that they have done at Craighead" and looks forward, as a Synod representative on the board, to supporting them in their roles and upholding the Special Anglican Christian Character of Craighead.
